Address O. D. I., West Point, Va.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch I Winchester, Va., September 4.—Miss Virginia Kitchen, who was bequeathed the greater portion of the large estate of her father, the late John Newton Kitchen, of Whitepost, and who escaped com Bayview Asylum, near Baltimore, everal months ago by scaling a liftcen-foot fence only to be captured after a long chase extending over several States, and confined in the Western State Hospital at Staunton, created a scene in Winchester to-day, when she clinded her brother, Ernest B. Kitchen, She came from Stunnton several days ago on a parole, and while her brother and her attorney, R. Gray Williams, were temporarily absent from the latter's office, she dashed by a young woman atenographer and ran through the business section, disappearing in an alley. A general alarm and detailed description were sent out to surrounding towns, but the demented young leiress was found this evening near the Fairfax Club and taken to the Memorral Hospital, where she is being constantly watched.

Burglar Is Captured.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., September 4—
A negro arrested here by Officer W. R.
Hall turns out to be the burglar who broke into the atore of T. E. Campbell, at Milford, in Carolino County, a few nights ago. The negro had in his possession a lot of clothing, shoes, pocketsknives, tobacco, umbrellas, hits and other articles, besides a watch which he had taken from a store at Summit. The negro gave his name as James Thompson. Sherin Gill, of Caroline County, was notified, and he came here and took the prisoner to Howling Green, where he was lodged in jail to await trial. Burglar Is Captured.
